Arbitration, it was pointed out, will be absolutely necessary, as Germany views the matter, to settle controversies over the loss of American lives in disasters like the Arabic's, inasmuch as the Kaiser positively will not recognize Americans' rights to traverse the war zone in belligerent ships.

There is the best ground for belief that Ambassador Bernstorff had been definitely "turned down" by his government on the "full satisfaction" issue.

Captain von Papen, military attache to Bernstorff's embassy, will be sent home, if the State Department wishes, it was ascertained, without further discussion, on the sole condition that he be given a safe conduct.

the public is unanimously in favor of the continuation of uncompromising submarine warfare on English and French shipping. England's sea power, the Germans be-

Reports that enemy ships have been sunk as far south as the Bay of Biscay, indicating the wide radius of submarine baye aroused great enthusians.

German Attache on "Vacation" in the West

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Captain von Papen, military attache to the German embassy in Washington, and Prince Hatzfeldt are today en route to Yellowstone Park, which is to be one of their objectives in a "seeing America vacation." The German officials slipped quietly into Chicago vesterday.

They stopped at an exclusive Michigan avenue hotel, where they denied themselves to all callers excepting a few friends, among whom was Baron Kurt von Reiswitz, German consul in Chicago.

A member of von Papen's staff let it be given out that he and Prince Hatzfeldt are "on vacation," and that they are "seeing America."

"Our association is spending thous ands of dollars opposing prohibition, for it is fatal to organized labor, but we want breweries operated by union workmen or we want no breweries at all."

The foregoing declarations by A. J. Kugler, representing the International Association of Brewery Workers in an address before the opening meeting of the eleventh annual convention of the Maryland State and District of Columbia Federation of Labor in Typographical Temple today, explained to what lengths the association would go to win the strike now prevailing in Washington.

Mr. Kugler urged the indorsement of the Federation to the cause of the RETURN OF RECORDS of the Federation to the cause of the union browery workers, and asked the 250 delegates present to refrain from patronizing saloons where non-union beer is sold.

Convention Opens.

The convention opened at 11 a. m. with John B. Colpoys, secretary of the Central Labor Union, presiding. The sessions will be held morning and afternoon in Typographical Temple until Friday.

Secretary Colpoys, in welcoming the lelegates, expressed the hope that the meeting would materially advance the cause of labor, and he urged that carecause of labor, and he urged that careful consideration be given all matters presented. He said Washington union men favored suffrage in the District, desired the expansion of the Department of Labor until it becomes the foremost branch of the Federal Government, and he spoke with pride of the accomplishments of organized labor in a legislative way during the last year. The session this afternoon was presided over by John H. Ferguson, of Baltimore, president of the federation. The program included an address of The program included an address of the secure of the records in quisare today, setting forth the contention at the secure of the records in quisare to the chamber of Commerce, on behalf of washington, and brief speeches by President Samuel Gompers and Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor.
